

Bill of Rights for Drivers

I have the right to:

- Drive without anyone riding my bumper
- Drive without worrying about other drivers texting and/or talking on the phone
- Drive without anyone cutting me off – pulling out in front of me
- Expect you to use your turn signal when turning
- Drive without you slamming on your brakes
- Park in the spot I have been patiently waiting for without someone stealing it
- Drive without being clipped by others suddenly – constantly - changing lanes to get through traffic
- Do the speed limit
- Look for my destination and street signs (especially if I do not know the area)
- To slow down and anticipate stopping at a yellow light
- Slow enough to safely turn
- Merge and allow others to merge
- Yield to oncoming traffic
- Enter the intersection after the light turns green
- Yield for pedestrians
- Be safe
- Yield to emergency vehicles
- Quietly comment on your driving
- To get from point A to point B
- Parallel park
